SCOTTSDALE, AZ - Dozens of cyclists began peddling their way from Scottsdale to San Diego Wednesday to help fellow service members in need.

Fifty riders are the mission to help their brothers and sisters in arms in the third annual Ride for Semper Fi.

The three day, 430-mile bicycle trek from Scottsdale to San Diego raises money for injured Marines and their families.

Organizers hoped to raise $177,500 this year, but have nearly surpassed the $200,000 mark.

The money will fund grants through the Injured Marine Semper Fi Fund.

Those grants provide assistance to offset hospital bills and recovery expenses.
